About Jeff Garcia

Jeff's childhood dreams would become reality when he was signed by the San Francisco 49ers. He would enjoy a 12 year NFL career, spanning 7 teams. Great character and passion, as well as the ability to get people to believe in one common goal would help him to lead 4 playoff runs with 3 separate teams, San Francisco, Philadelphia, and Tampa Bay, 3 times bringing those teams back to playoff life after experiencing losing seasons the previous year.

He was a 4 time NFL Pro Bowl Selection, 3 time Pro Football Hall of Fame nominee, he is one of only 8 quarterbacks in NFL history who have achieved 2 consecutive 30 touchdown seasons. He is the 20th player to surpass 40,000 passing yards in his professional career that spans 17 seasons and has one of the best ever touchdown to interception ratios in NFL history. While with the 49ers, he set the all time single season passing yardage mark with 4,278 yards and is the only QB in their storied history to have 3 consecutive seasons of 3000 plus passing yards.
